The Current Condition of the Japanese Machine Tool Industry

Monthly Machine Tool Orders (September 2025)

The total value of machine tool orders in September was 139.15 billion yen. This increased 15.8% compared to August 2025 and marked the first month of month-on-month growth in three months. Moreover, this figure represented an increase of 11.0% compared to the same month of the previous year and marked the third consecutive month of year-on-year growth. The total number of orders exceeded 120 billion yen for the seventh consecutive month. It was the 56th consecutive month that the total amount exceeded 110 billion yen, and this was the third consecutive month of month-on-month growth compared to the same month last year. Machine tool orders in September showed a strong effect at the end of the first half of the fiscal year, and the upward trend has become the norm. Although the US tariff measures have eased, orders are expected to remain cautious as the international situation remains uncertain. While orders are generally strong, we hope for a recovery in the fourth quarter.

Domestic orders rose by 36.8% over August to 43.65 billion yen. Furthermore, this figure showed an increase of 5.1% over the same month of the previous year. This exceeded 40 billion yen for the first time in six months, but for September alone it was lower than average for the past five years.

Looking at major industries, orders compared to August rose by 21.3% in industrial machinery, by 15.9% in motor vehicles, by 61.2% in electrical & precision machinery, and by 150.1% in aircraft, shipbuilding & transport equipment.

Foreign orders rose by 8.2% over August to 95.50 billion yen, marked the first month of month-on-month growth in six months. Besides, foreign orders showed an increase of 13.9% over the same month of the previous year, and this marked the twelfth consecutive month of year-on-year growth. By region, orders from Asia rose by 14.9% over August to 49.61 billion yen. This increased 15.9% over the same month of the previous year. Orders from Europe rose by 9.9% over August to 15.54 billion yen. This was an increase of 15.1% over the same month of the previous year. Orders from North America rose by 1.6% over August, amounting to 29.55 billion yen. This figure showed an increase of 19.3% over the same month of the previous year.
